From Forbes Magazine: RED SEA—EILAT! One of the 10 must-dive destinations!!
<https://www.forbes.com/sites/breannawilson/2017/03/13/10-must-dive-destinations-for-2017/#64f0ae8867af> ... The Red Sea - water temperatures 70 - 77F / 21 - 25C; little to no currents and great visibility (up to 100ft / 30.5m), diving is relatively easy... There have been major restoration projects by Israeli marine biologists... So much to see?? "Eels, ship wrecks, corals & schools of fish".

And while you're in Eilat on either a Tues. Thurs. Fri. or Sat. visit Israel's biggest fountain & enjoy the audiovisual colourful Musical Fountain or just cool off during the day by running through the shooting water jets! Eilat - FUN CITY!

MAY 18—21 Open House Tel Aviv is one of many "Open-House" events that take place in cities around the world. For events, times of tours in Tel Aviv-Jaffa please visit the site: <http://www.batim-il.org/ToursEng.aspx?batim>

This year, FRESH PAINT Art Fair gave artists from around the world a platform to exhibit at the almost completed Steinhardt Museum of Natural History on the campus of Tel Aviv University. The museum is shaped like Noah's Ark, and is slated to open this summer with a collection of over 5 million specimens. WOW! And as reported by Tel Aviv University, it is "the first and only center for natural history research and outreach in the Middle East."

Tel Aviv Gay Pride Week: June 2017 and the Parade on Fri. June 9 Includes gay-friendly events in various areas in Tel Aviv. Thousands of tourists come here from all over the world - once more proving that Tel Aviv is really the gay capital of the world! And you don't have to be gay to have fun!!! Follow the floats or stand along the street with a cool drink and join in the festivities!

International Travel & Congresses prides itself in making all efforts to ensure that all clients will have the best experiences whilst on their journey to the Holy Land - including getting as close to the Mediterranean Sea as possible!
