The place to be in Tel Aviv on an early Friday afternoon - The Carmel Market aka "THE SHUK"- Ha'Carmel Street & Nachalat Binyamin meet the corner of Allenby & King George & Shenkein. Walk (or roll with the tide) down the main strip and you must go off on the little side streets, which lead you to other side streets and join the locals at the eateries (fine dining it ain't) which are basically a hole in the wall or a little bistro-bar type restaurant ... every inch of the road is covered with people !

US business magazine Forbes announced the first-ever "Forbes Under 30 Summit Global" in Israel which will be from May 6-9, 2018 week. Representatives from more than 35 countries will bring close to a thousand under 30-year-old top entrepreneurs. (On their site they advise that there is another Summit in September in Boston, MA where they are expecting thousands to attend!)

A first for ASL Airlines— direct flight starting this summer, every Tuesday and Thursday—from Paris Charles de Gaulle Airport to Israel's Ben Gurion International Airport... Bienvenue !

CONFERENCES EXHIBITIONS ... SYMPOSIUMS... FESTIVALS ... EVENTS ... MICE!
